

LAW STUDENT REMOTE INTERNSHIP POSITION
LONG-TERM CARE PRACTICE GROUP – SUMMER 2023

For over 50 years, Legal Aid Chicago has provided free civil legal assistance to people living in poverty in metropolitan Chicago. Each year our attorneys, volunteers, and staff help resolve civil legal problems, including domestic violence, consumer fraud, and unfair evictions.

Legal Aid Chicago is seeking a Summer 2023 law student intern for the Long-Term Care Practice Group.

Position: Intern with the Long-Term Care Practice Group. The Long-Term Care Practice Group advocates for residents of long-term care facilities in suburban Cook County and Lake County. Our intern will assist with legal research and administrative hearings as well as other projects that may arise.

Responsibilities:

- Under the supervision of attorneys, assist in representation of clients in administrative hearings, including involuntary discharge hearings and Medicaid appeal hearings;
- Conduct legal research;
- Conduct outreach virtually regarding legal issues affecting residents of long-term care and the Ombudsman program;
- Assist residents of long-term care settings in understanding their rights.

Qualifications:

- Be a current law student at an accredited law school;
- Experience working with vulnerable populations, particularly elderly and disabled people, helpful;
- Be available to work remotely;
- Ability to work independently;
- Prior experience in clinical work or experiential learning preferred.

Term of Service: Must be available for 10 weeks, beginning in late May and ending in August.

Compensation: Though Legal Aid Chicago does not provide funding, funding will be available through external funding sources such as PILI, AmeriCorps EJW, and Equal Justice America. Applicants who seek academic credit or have their own funding are welcome.

To Apply: Send a resume, a cover letter explaining your interest in the position, law school transcript, writing sample and two professional references to internship@legalaidchicago.org. Write “Law Student Intern, Long-Term Care Practice Group” in the subject line of your email. No phone calls, please.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis, and the position will remain open until filled.

Legal Aid Chicago is firmly committed to creating a diverse workplace and is proud to provide equal employment opportunities to all applicants and therefore does not discriminate on the basis of creed, color, national origin, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, age religion, marital or parental status, alienage, disability, political affiliation or belief, military or military discharge status, or ex-offender status. Applicants who have experiences with our client communities are encouraged to apply.
